INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Although ESC is based in Portugal, we very much welcome contributions that enhance academic debate from anywhere in the world.

Articles should constitute original research that matches ESC aims and scope, be theoretically informed and methodologically sound, and of relevance to an international audience.

Articles are accepted and published in Portuguese, English, French and Spanish.

There are no publishing fees and no processing charges for manuscripts published in ESC, and published online articles are freely available at ESC Homepage.

PEER-REVIEW

Each research article in ESC undergoes rigorous peer review, based on initial editor screening and, if judged suitable for ESC, refereeing by at least two anonymous referees.

Based on the reviews received, the editor-in-chief decides whether the paper should be accepted as is, accepted with minor or major revisions, invited to resubmit, or rejected. The editor-in-chief is responsible for the final editorial decision.

There is no need to submit a blinded manuscript, since ESC editorial assistants, prior to sending it to the reviewers, will ensure that the manuscript contains no identifying information about the author(s).

ORIGINALITY, RESPONSIBILITIES AND PERMISSIONS

When submitting a manuscript, the corresponding author, on behalf of all the co-authors, should add a statement confirming that the text is original, that it has not been published previously and that it is not currently being considered for publication elsewhere.

This cover letter should confirm that all authors have given their approval to the submission of the manuscript and its possible publication. The authors assume responsibility for the accuracy of the contents, as well as for the opinions expressed.

In the cover letter, authors should also disclose actual or potential conflict of interest, if applicable.

Prior to article submission, authors should obtain written permission from copyright holders to reproduce any illustrations, tables, figures or lengthy quotations (of more than 500 words) previously published elsewhere, and submit it along with their manuscript. ESC strongly condemns plagiarism and self-plagiarism.
COPYRIGHT

Authors grant ESC, its editor(s), and/or the legal representatives of CIIE/FPCEUP full and exclusive rights to publish, distribute, display, and archive their articles worldwide, in all formats and media now known or as developed in the future.

The ‘Exclusive License Agreement’ should only be completed when the manuscript has been accepted for publication.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The full names and references of specific grants and any third-party funders must be given in the acknowledgments section of the article, prior to references. This section must include other contributors (persons or entities) that provided technical or general support.

PROOFS

Proofs will be sent in PDF format to the corresponding author, and should be carefully checked before being returned. Contributors will be notified when the article has been published on the ESC Homepage.

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION

1. Manuscripts must be sent by email attachment, in Microsoft Word, to ciie_edicoes@fpce.up.pt. All correspondence, including notification of the decision, takes place via e-mail. A statement of originality (see above) and a short biographical note (fewer than 100 words) for each author must be included in the manuscript submission.

2. Articles are accepted and published in Portuguese, English, French and Spanish. Each manuscript should include the title, abstract and keywords in Portuguese, English and French. In articles in Spanish, the title, abstract and keywords are also displayed in Spanish.

3. All authors should include their institutional affiliations and email addresses. One author should be identified as the corresponding author and full contact details including email, mailing address and telephone numbers should be provided.

4. Papers must avoid discriminatory language and inferences.

5. Authors should carefully make sure that the manuscripts were prepared in accordance with the instructions for authors. Manu scripts that do not pass the preliminary check based on these guidelines may be returned for corrections before being sent out for review.

Manuscript Preparation

1. Articles should be between 6000 and 8000 words in length, including abstracts, keywords, tables, footnotes, reference list, and appendices.
2. Manuscripts should contain an abstract (and its translations – see above) of no more than 200 words, describing the purpose, the methods, and the general findings of the study. Following the abstract, manuscripts should include up to five keywords.
3. All manuscript pages must be 1.5 spacing and typed in Times New Roman, 11-point font size, with 3 cm for head margin and 2.5 cm for left and right hand margins and foot.
4. Citations in the text should provide the last name of the authors and the year of publication (and page numbers for direct quotes)
5. Quotations exceeding 40 words should be displayed indented in the text.
6. Headings and sub-headings should be clearly distinguished.
7. Explanatory footnotes should be avoided whenever its contents can be included in the main text.
8. For inquiries relating to the submission of manuscript, please visit ESC’s Homepage. If you have any questions or need further information, please contact our editorial assistants.

REFERENCES

1. Authors should use the APA reference style as a guide for preparing the reference section, the difference being that, in ESC, the first name of the authors is displayed in full.
2. References are listed in alphabetical order and presented in a separate section headed “References”.
3. Each listed reference should be cited in text, and each text citation should be listed in the Reference list.
4. Publication information for each reference must be complete and correct.
